OREGON WINE PRESS

EST. 1984

ESTABLISHED 1984

Oregon Wine Press — then named Oregon Wine Press Calendar — was launched in 1984 by Portland-area natives Richard Hopkins and Elaine Cohen. In 2006, the magazine was purchased by News-Register Publishing Co., a family-owned, fourth-generation publishing company located in McMinnville, Oregon. From its base in the lush Willamette Valley, OWP continues the long tradition of excellence established by its founders.

EDITORIAL STATEMENT

As Oregon's only wine-focused monthly magazine, OWP has been the leader in providing in-depth, comprehensive coverage of Oregon's wine industry for more than four decades.

WHY CHOOSE OWP?

Oregon's Only: Circulated throughout the Northwest and the nation, OWP gives advertisers a trusted, proven vehicle to reach Oregon's most devoted wine enthusiasts and tourists visiting our wine country.

Monthly Publication: OWP is a monthly magazine, so, unlike quarterly wine magazines in the area, our news and features are fresh and up to date. Advertising on a monthly basis in OWP will provide your company the greatest exposure and will qualify you for a frequency discount.

Editorial Content: OWP serves the entire state of Oregon with well-balanced coverage. We aim to bring all of the state's wine regions into the spotlight.

Large Circulation: OWP is a free publication available at nearly 1,000 locations throughout Oregon and across the country; it is also available through paid subscription. Monthly distribution ranges from 15,000 to 18,000.

Competitive Pricing: Advertising rates in OWP are moderate for the impact generated.

Distinctive Graphic Design: OWP strives for its own distinctive look among its competitors. Our professional team of designers will design and produce your ad without charge. We'll work with you to create an instant visual connection with your potential customers.

Testimonials: As a testament to OWP, winemakers, winegrowers and avid readers stand behind our magazine. We're constantly reminded by readers how important it is to have a statewide publication devoted exclusively to Oregon wine.

EDITORIAL CONTENT

OWP content is well balanced to serve our readers with insightful reporting on all segments of Oregon's wine industry. We strive to cover topics that take readers from behind the scenes in the winery to the wine shop shelf and all points in between.

The following monthly departments cover a variety of topics.

HOW THE ROGUE VALLEY AVA GREW FROM CONTROVERSY TO CELEBRATION IN 35 YEARS

BY MICHELE FRANCISCO

Today, it's hard to imagine Rogue Valley's wine industry being called, let alone grown, disavowed by the region's natives and discovered by the region's natives. In 1980, the Rogue Valley was barely a name on a map. It was a remote, rural area, and its wine industry was barely a name on a map. It was a remote, rural area, and its wine industry was barely a name on a map.

Growth was measured, but slow. By 1980, the region had seven bonded wineries and 80 vineyards totaling 400 acres. Despite its small size, the region was the state's wine without doubt. It was a remote, rural area, and its wine industry was barely a name on a map.

FESTIVE HILL WINERY BRINGS BIG-VENUE ENERGY TO WEST LINN WINE COUNTRY

BY GREG NORTON

Ron Barrett and Maggie Tamm were seeking a quieter place to raise their kids. Tired of the bustle of Los Angeles, the pair relocated to Oregon in 2008 and, two years later, purchased 20 acres in West Linn. Over time, a vineyard, winery and hall were built. Festive Hill Winery's opening last June "We bought this property in 2011 but didn't start planting vines until 2014," Barrett recalls. Original plantings of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay were soon joined by Plant Cellar and Tempranillo. The most recent addition, Harding and a small block of Cabernet Sauvignon, increased the vineyard to 10 acres. The first Festive Hill vintage was 2017.

A ROOM WITH A VIEW

The property's existing residence is tucked away behind a tree. Barrett remembers a day spent clearing the land of Himalayan blackberries, when he passed to admire the sunset from the top of the hill. "Why did they build the house over there?" he mused. "It should be right here—look at this view!" Festive Hill's grand tasting hall now occupies that spot, providing tiered views to crowds of more than 200 people from its windows and wraparound deck. The commercial kitchen and dining configuration can accommodate a crowd for 150 people. "We want to create something that's a type of cultural center, something that gives people an alternative to go out on weekends and have some fun, enjoy some music," Barrett explains. The name Festive Hill was chosen to suggest that this is more than just a place to enjoy wine. The revelry lasts later than at most wineries: until 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and until 9 p.m. on Sunday. "We're trying to be a little bit of everything—a nightclub, restaurant and winery."

PLAYING BY EAR

A grand piano occupies a corner of the tasting hall, along with other instruments and professional sound equipment. Monthly dinner shows and a busy calendar of holiday and themed events are among Festive Hill's business models. Barrett's vision draws on his background in both hospitality and professional music. "My first band was a heavy metal band called Black Clinic," he shares. Barrett also performed in other genres—top 40 pop and even a country music club in Nashville. It was while on tour as a musician that he first fell in love with the area. "I would

TESTIMONIALS

READERS

“I really enjoy the work that you guys do at the OWP. As you are certainly aware, it is nearly impossible to toe the line between consumer and industry audiences and to satisfy the needs of both in one publication. You and your staff absolutely nail it.

Bill Hooper, Paetra Wines

“I spent more than a decade in the Willamette Valley before returning to Baker City in 2016. I enjoy the connection to the rest of the Oregon Industry through The Wine Press that I no longer have here. It's great to see and hear the stories of others outside of my region and across the stat.

Travis Cook, Copper Belt Wines, Snake River Valley

“I was really delighted in your coverage in OWP of South Salem Sips. My wife and I visited Cória Cellars last summer after seeing them in a Cellar Selects choice. After so many years of loving northern Willamette Valley wineries, I was totally unaware of this region, and it's quite a shock to see such well-developed vineyards! Cória has a great facility, friendly folks, a killer view and terrific wine.”

Dave Stewart, Willamette Valley

“Your publication is very professionally presented. We always look forward to each issue. Being from Yamhill County, we feel a sense of pride in the quality of the coverage. Keep on!”

Jeff and Kathy Pearson, Carlton

“I wanted to thank you for the beautiful job you did with the 20 year anniversary article. I've received so many nice notes with congratulations. I loved reading what my colleagues said, too. Thank you very much for helping us, as an industry, celebrate and learn!

Jessica Mozeico, Et Fille Wines

ADVERTISERS

“We decided to make an advertising investment to reach the Oregon wineries and their customers. Our diligence resulted in selecting The Oregon Wine Press as our ad partner. They have been terrific to work with, from account management to creative and messaging. We are so happy with them and the results!

Charlie Burrows, Power Systems Plus

“We thank OWP for being the voice of our industry through collaborative, educational and entertaining content. The publication has helped us share our story with the people that matter the most to us. Thank you, OWP, for being such a great partner for our winery.

Christine Collier, Willamette Valley Vineyards

“I am interested in advertising in OWP because since the onset of my participation in the Oregon wine industry, I have considered them the most faithful, committed and informative publication in our state about our wine industry. In addition, they've always been creative in how to establish, keep and maintain industry participants, and wine aficionados interested in their monthly publications. I consider OWP a true partner to my winery and my winery's goals. I also consider OWP a true partner, and of great service to our most important audience, the wine drinkers.

Mauricio Collada Jr. MD, Cubanísimo Vineyards

“OWP has been a pivotal marketing partner to help us build our statewide online presence and business growth. Since advertising in OWP and reaching a highly relevant consumer audience, we've seen a 25% increase to our website traffic and average page views have improved by 30%.”

Stacy Heatherington, Oregon.com

“We appreciate OWP so much we asked to become a distributor! Our associates, along with our customers, look forward to each monthly issue and connecting with the winegrape community. An advertiser as well, we've been very pleased with the response from our ad campaigns. Thank you for continuing to produce a quality publication backed by great customer service.”

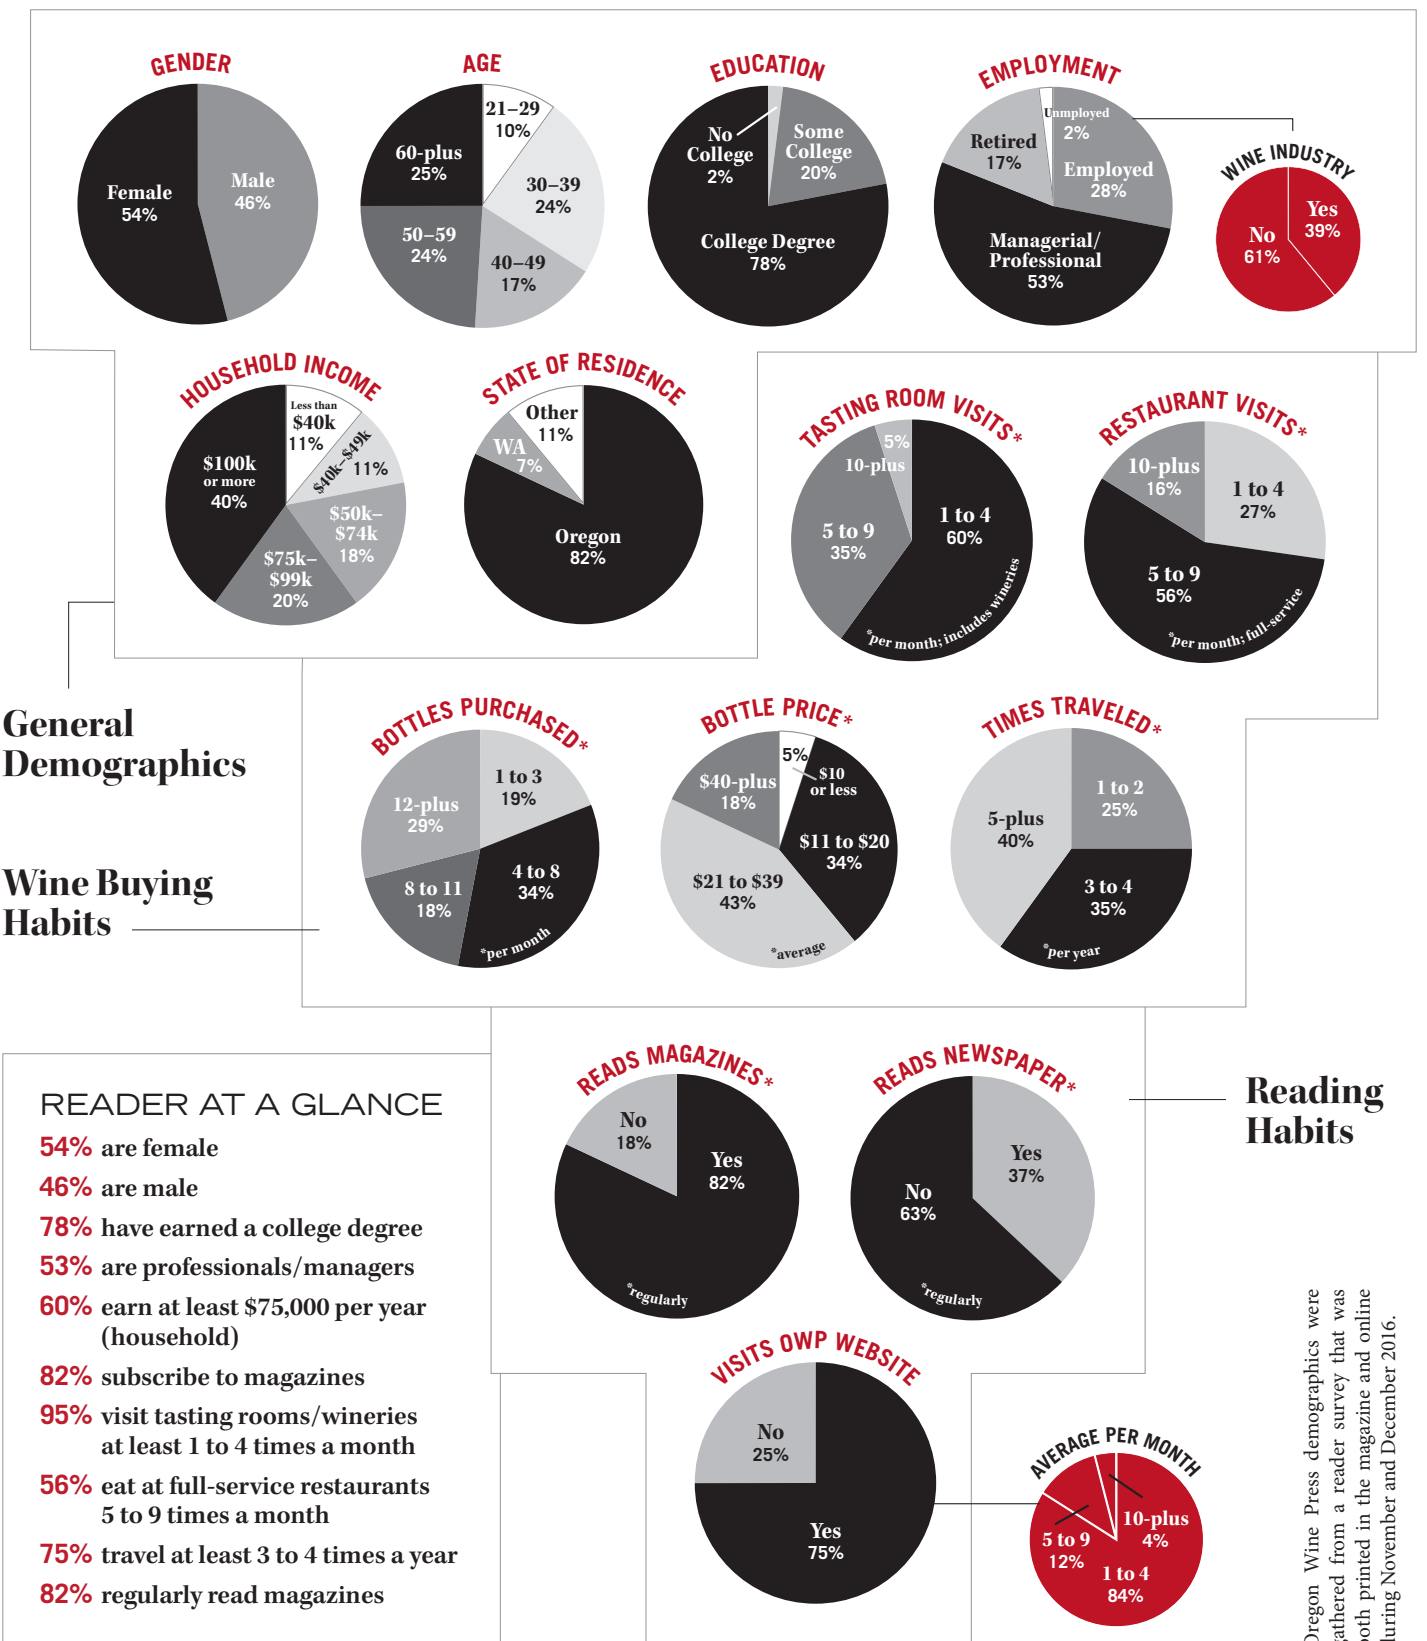

Lisa Gossett, Oregon Vineyard Supply

INDUSTRY LEADERS

“I just read the OWP review of “Voodoo Vintners.” Thank you so much! It means so much to me. I'm actually getting a little misty reading it — it is so beautifully written. I have already heard from one winemaker's wife who read the review and wants to buy the book. I think your review might be the single most important one for this book because it will reach everyone in the Oregon wine community who cares about this (admittedly obscure) issue. I can't thank you enough. Thank you, thank you, thank you!”

Katherine Cole, The Oregonian

The Rosé Report

OREGON'S MOST COMPELLING ROSÉS FOR EVERY SUMMER OCCASION

Abacela 2025 Grenache Rosé, Umpqua Valley
Slate and red cherry open over rose petal and ripe flood strawberry on the nose. In the glass, raspberry and cherry lead into lemon zest, with vivacious acidity and an enubertant, fruit-forward mark. $20

68 WINES EVALUATED

Schmidt Family Vineyards Willamette Rosé, Applegate Valley
Gravel dust and pink grapefruit meet lychee and red cherry on the nose. Light and breezy on the tongue, with pink grapefruit, raspberry and a whisper of unripe strawberry. Well-balanced and refreshing. $23

Domino IV 2025 No. 68 Inverse, Coyote the Trickster, Oregon (80% Viognier, 20% Syrah)
Playful and aromatic, with red hot candy, violets and jasmine over a mineral backbone. Tart cherry, raspberry and rhubarb carry through on the flavor, building to a spicy cinnamon finale with a lingering raspberry sorbet richness. $38

Puffin Brand 2025 Rosé of Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley
Highly aromatic, with graphite, cranberry, grilled lemon and blood orange over a ruddy red grapefruit foundation. Broad and energetic in the glass, with tangy ruby red grapefruit, lemon and blood orange giving way to sweet cherry. Vibrant acidity keeps it lively. $26

Del Rio Vineyard Estate 2025 Gretna Rosé, Rogue Valley
Summer in a glass—strawberry and Bing cherry open alongside petrichor and a bouquet of summer flowers. The flavors are generous and rounded, with strawberry, pink grapefruit and hibiscus framing a rhubarb thread through the mid-palate. A quintessential warm-weather pour. $21

Corollary Wines 2022 Cuvée One Rosé Extra Brut, Willamette Valley
Broche, slate, plus strawberries and cream set an elegant tone on the nose. Fine bubbles deliver Rainier cherry and lime zest across an expressive, radiant frame, finishing with a hint of pie crust that adds complexity and depth. A serious sparkling rose. $40

Cória Estates 2025 Rosé of Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley
Gravel dust, wild cherry and cedar make for a quietly complex nose. Cherry pie composite, cran-raspberry and sandalwood develop in the glass, with a kiss of sweetness on the mid-palate before a memorable, focused ending. $28
